

SHOP DOWNTOWN LEXINGTON

Shopping in the City of Lexington is fun, with a variety of merchants, many offering items unique to the Lexington and Rockbridge County area.

Parking in the downtown area has been designed to serve the needs of businesses, customers, tourists and employees.

Downtown Lexington is Rockbridge County's hub for government, education, entertainment, dining, arts, culture and shopping. As Downtown Lexington continues to evolve as a vibrant place to shop, live, work and play, the demand for parking is, and will continue to be, significant.

Downtown Lexington is pedestrian-friendly, scenic, historic! While walking from your car to your destination, you can make many discoveries ... whether your interests are in architecture, history or shopping. While in Lexington, shop with our merchants, dine in our restaurants, browse our galleries and visit our museums and those located at Washington & Lee University and the Virginia Military Institute.

PARKING IN DOWNTOWN LEXINGTON

Parking restrictions in Downtown Lexington are strictly enforced.

OFF-STREET PARKING

There are eight (8) parking lots in the City, including the parking garage accessible from Randolph Street or Varner Lane. All are free, conveniently located and easily accessible.

ON-STREET PARKING

On-street parking is enforced from 8am until 6pm, Monday through Friday.

Please note the time limit for the space in which you park and respect those spaces reserved for handicapped parking only.

SATURDAY, SUNDAY AND HOLIDAYS

Parking time limits are not enforced on Saturday, Sunday or holidays, except in 10 MINUTE ONLY spaces.

HANDICAPPED PARKING

Those with handicapped parking permits may park for up to four (4) hours in any on-street parking space, including 10 minute spaces. A handicapped sticker, tag or plate must be properly displayed.

MONTHLY PERMIT PARKING

Permits for parking are available to residents, employees and employers in Downtown Lexington. Employers and employees of businesses in the downtown are encouraged to utilize permit parking and to use the parking garage on Randolph Street.

Produced by the City of Lexington Planning Office, Lexington Police Department, Lexington and Rockbridge Area Visitors Center and the Lexington-Buena Vista-Rockbridge County Chamber of Commerce.
